

Responsibility – The Epistemic Dimension 2014

Monday 28/4

9.00 coffee

9.30-10.15

Jan Willem Wieland, VU University Amsterdam
Responsibility - The Epistemic Dimension

10.15-11.15

Holly Smith, Rutgers, State University of New Jersey
The Subjective Moral Duty to Inform Oneself Before Acting

11.15-11.30 break

11.30-12.15

Philip Robichaud, Delft University of Technology
How Not to Establish Culpability for Ignorant Action

12.15-13.00

Stephen Bero, University of Southern California
A Partial Defense of the Exculpatory Power of Ignorance

13.00

Lunch (Cousine)

14.00-14.45

Mathieu Doucet, University of Waterloo
Moral Responsibility and the Limits of Self-Assessment

14.45-15.30

Kai Spiekermann, London School of Economics
Four Types of Moral Wriggle Room

15.30-15.45 break

15.45-16.30

Sara Rachel Chant, University of Missouri
Epistemic Conditions for Collective Moral Responsibility

16.30-17.30

Martin van Hees, University of Amsterdam
Trembling Hands, Maxims and Moral Responsibility

18.30

Dinner (De Waaghals, Frans Halsstraat 29)

Tuesday 29/4

9.00 coffee

9.30-10.30

Michael Zimmerman, University of North Carolina
Ignorance as a Moral Excuse

10.30-11.15

Katherine Johnson, Bellarmine University
Passive and Active Ignorance

11.15-11.30 break

11.30-12.15

Elizabeth Harman, Princeton University
Ethics is Hard! What Follows?

12.15-13.00

Alex Guerrero, University of Pennsylvania
Can the Case for Not Excusing Mistakes of Law Be Supported By the Case for Not Excusing Mistakes of Morality?

13.00

Lunch (Cousine)

14.00-14.45

Andrea Kruse, Ruhr University Bochum
An Externalist Approach to Epistemic Blameworthiness

14.45-15.30

Guy Axtell, Radford University
Epistemic Responsibility, Negligence, and Dual-Process Theory

15.30-15.45 break

15.45-16.30

Frank Hindriks et al., University of Groningen
The Moral Compositionality Hypothesis

16.30-17.15

Gunnar Björnsson, Umeå University
Explaining (Away) the Knowledge Condition on Moral Responsibility